

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ART AND RELIGION IN LUSITÂNIA

2-3 June 2016

National Museum of Archaeology (MNA), Lisbon

This Conference is the result of a partnership between the Institute of Art History of the Universidade NOVA de Lisboa (IHA/ FCSH/ NOVA) and the MNA. It aims at exploring the relation between the different artistic expressions in the ancient Roman Lusitania and the way art pieces express religiosity in this roman province. This initiative is framed by the exhibition “RELIGIONS OF LVSITÂNIA. LOQVVNTVR SAXA” and “LUSITÂNIA ROMANA. ORIGIN OF TWO PEOPLE / LUSITANIA ROMANA. OF ORIGIN OF PUEBLOS”, at the National Museum of Archaeology, and follows the events dedicated to art and culture during the Roman presence in this territory.

The Scientific Committee of the Conference will accept particularly paper proposals focused on pieces from the collection of MNA that show the link between art and religion (<http://www.matriznet.dgpc.pt/matriznet/home.aspx> website).

Proposals must be submitted by March 30th, 2016, to congressomna@gmail.com, accompanied by a short abstract (maximum 300 words) and a brief biographical note of the author. The Scientific Committee of the Conference report on the selection by April 2nd. Papers are accepted in Portuguese, English, Spanish, French and Italian.

The final articles may be submitted in these same official languages until September 30th, and their publication, under a peer review process (blind peer review), is to happen in the journal O Arqueólogo Português, expectedly in 2017.

The REGISTRATION FEES are as follows:

- Participants with oral communication: 50 €
- Participants without oral communication: 30 €
- Members of MNA, IHA, GAMNA: free assistance

SCHEDULE:

- Deadline for the Call for Abstracts: March 30th, 2016
- Date of final selection by the Scientific Committee: April 2nd, 2016
- Final program: April 4th, 2016
- Deadline for registration: May 30th, 2016
- Final article to be submitted to peer review: September 30th, 2016